

Clear Lake High School Baseball

100 Inning Game & Little League Mini-Camp Service Project

Date

Saturday Feb. 7, 2009

Time

8:30 am – 5:00 pm

Place

Clear Lake High School
Bob Cobb Field

The 100 Inning Game is an all-day event at Clear Lake High School. Pledges per inning are collected to help fund the baseball program.

A mini-camp will be conducted by the Falcon baseball players with emphasis on teaching little leaguers the basic skills needed to become better baseball players.

Lunch will be served at the field. Tickets will be on sale before and during events.

Jed Morris Victory Fund

This year, 25% of all proceeds will be donated to the Jed Morris Victory Fund. Jed is a Clear Lake Baseball family member who was diagnosed with leukemia last year. Jed played here for 3 years, then 2 years at Tyler Junior College and 2 years at Nebraska and is currently in the Oakland Athletics organization.
